

DIED.

In this city. Mrs. Desire Jerom aged 70.

At Windham, very suddenly, Mr. Josiah Ripley, aged about 50. He had been at work in a field, when complaining of feeling unwell, laid down under some bushes, where he was soon after found dead.

Mr. Phineas Spafford, aged about 70. While riding down a hill upon the tongue of a cart, the oxen ran and threw him off, the wheel passing over his head, killed him instantly.

At Ashford, on the 8th Inst. Mr. Hamilton Grant, aged 63. On the 10th, Mr. Isaac Anthony, aged 48—At Woodstock, Miss Polly Skinner, daughter of Dr. Wm. Skinner, aged 28—At Lebanon, Augustavus, son of the Rev Ezekiel Brown.

At New-York, Mrs. Elizabeth Hotchkiss, formerly of this city, aged 59.

At Waterford, on Monday evening last, after a short, but distressing illness which he bore with Christian resignation, Deacon Jethro Beebe in the 67th year of his age.

At Montville, of the Typhus fever, August 9, Eunice Newbury, aged 18; and on the 11th Betsey, her sister, aged 25; daughters of Capt<sup>d</sup> Davis Newbury.

At Lyme, on 31st July, Col. Watrous Beckwith, after a most painful, long con-tioned illness, aged 62 years. He was greatly respected and beloved by his acquaintance; lived an active and useful life—and died a Christian.

At Plainfield, Thomas Butler, Esq. aged 54; formerly of N. York.

Accident.—On Sunday morning last, some boys, were amusing themselves at Mystick, in swimming, when one of them named Nelson, Reid, aged 14, was unfortunately drowned. How much better would it have been, if these lads had been at Sunday School!!